

DEPARTURES

July 22, 2015

24 Reasons To Travel This July

© Floto + Warner

Boro Hotel in Queens, New York

The Boro Hotel, located in the up-and-coming area of Long Island City, Queens, arrives this month with 108 rooms designed by New York City architecture and interior design firm Grzywinski + Pons. The guestrooms are outfitted in a modern industrial style, with custom furniture, freestanding bathtubs, and oak flooring. Floor-to-ceiling windows offer grand views of the East River, and the hotel's location in the neighborhood of Dutch Kills makes it an ideal launching pad for visitors looking to explore the best of LIC attractions, including MoMA PS1, ramen at Mu Ramen, and the newly launched Smorgasburg Queens. From $179; 38-28 27th St.; 718-433-1375; borohotel.com.